Dr. BABASAHEB AMBEDKAR WRITINGS AND SPEECHES

LABOUR & IDEALISM

The country needs a lead and the question is who can give this lead. I venture to say that Labour is capable of giving to the country the lead it needs. Correct leadership apart from other things, requires idealism and free thought. Idealism is possible for the Aristocracy, though free thought is not. Idealism and free thought are both possible for labour. But neither idealism nor free thought is possible for the middle –class. The middle-class does not possess the liberality of the Aristocracy which is necessary to welcome and nourish and ideal. It does not possess the hunger for the New Order, which is the hope on which the laboring classes live. Labour, therefore, has a very distinct contribution to make in bringing about a return to the sane and safe ways of the past which Indians had been pursuing to reach their political destiny. Labour's lead to India and Indians is to get into the fight and be united. The fruits of victory will be independence and a New Social Order. For such a victory all must fight. Then the fruits of victory will be the patrimony of all, and there will be none to deny the rights of a united India to share in that patrimony.
